

Australian Government
Australian Research Council

Acknowledging the ARC and Logo Use

Grant recipients are required to appropriately acknowledge ARC's contribution to research and other activities in line with their Grant Agreement. The ARC logo should be included in this acknowledgement.

Permission to use the ARC logo must be granted by the ARC. To request permission, email communications@arc.gov.au with details of the ARC-funded project and how the logo will be used.

Using the ARC Logo

Australian Government
Australian Research Council

Australian Government
Australian Research Council

Logo use must comply with the Australian Government Branding Design Guidelines about placement, colour and size requirements. For example, the printed Australian Coat of Arms must be a minimum of 20mm.

If you have questions about the use of the ARC logo or the Australian Government Crest, please contact ARC Communications or the Honours and Symbols section of the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet at governmentbranding@pmc.gov.au.

When approved, the ARC will provide you logo files for both stacked and in-line versions in a range of formats. We recommend you use EPS or TIFF for print media, GIF for web and JPEG or GIF for Microsoft Office.

Acknowledging ARC Funding and Disclaimer of Views

ARC support must be acknowledged in all research outputs, including publications, websites, and promotional materials, in accordance with the Grant Agreement. The Project ID must be included, and the ARC should be named as a funding body.

ARC-funded Centres should include 'Australian Research Council' or 'ARC' in their titles and display the ARC logo prominently. Researchers awarded an ARC fellowship must acknowledge the specific scheme.

It must also be made clear that any views expressed are those of the authors and not necessarily those of the Australian Government or the ARC.

Examples:

Funded by the Australian Government through the Australian Research Council (ARC). Professor XXX is the recipient of an ARC Discovery Early Career Researcher Award (project number XXXX). The views expressed are those of the authors and are not necessarily those of the Australian Government or the ARC.

Conducted by the ARC Centre of Excellence for XXXX (project number XXXX), funded by the Australian Government. The views expressed are those of the authors and are not necessarily those of the Australian Government or the ARC.